Message from Cantor Green

Judaism has provided the ultimate religious embodiment for two majestic notions: Memory and hope.

Memory is our living connection to our ancestors. Hope is our legacy for a generation yet to come.

Those we remember live on in us: in words, gestures, a smile, an act of kindness that we might not have performed had our loved ones not left an impression on our lives. Yizkor is remembering as a ritual act of thanksgiving for a life that was; one which still sends its reverberations into the life that is “God remembered Noah” (Gen. 8:1) and brought him to dry land. “God remembered Abraham” (Gen. 19:29) and rescued Lot from the destruction of Sodom. “God Remembered Rachel” (Gen. 30:22) and gave her a child. When Jews remember, we – like God – do so for the future, the place where, if we are faithful to it, the past never dies.

Amen means “I have faith in this; I believe in this”. Amen comes from the same Hebrew root as Emunah – faith. When mourners recite the Kaddish, the congregation responds Amen five times. We observe two customs at KBI to make sure everyone remembering a lost loved one is supported by the rest of the congregation: (1) those who usually leave the sanctuary for Yizkor return before the Mourner’s Kaddish; and (2) each of their responses of Amen is said deliberately and fervently. That way, there are people to say “I have faith in this”, and nobody mourns alone.

May we all be blessed with beautiful memories and long life.

Cantor Jason Green

A prayer for those blessed with living parents

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, at this solemn moment I raise my eyes to you, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart, thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the life of my beloved (father, mother).

May it be Your will, O lord my God and God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their love, affection, and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe to them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your divine spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to you and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart.

El Malei for Israel's Soldiers & Martyrs

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace among the holy and the pure, in your sheltering presence, to the souls of the soldiers of the Israel Defense Forces who gave their lives for the sanctity of Your Name, the people and the land, and died a death of valor in the wars of Israel, and the souls of those killed in terror attacks. For we pray on their behalf that paradise be their resting place. Therefore, Master of Mercy, shelter them in your presence forever. May their souls be bound up in the bonds of life. God is their inheritance, and may they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

Prayers when visiting the cemetery

When visiting for the first time in more than 30 days:

Baruch Atah Ado-nai

m'chayei hameitim

“Praised be the Eternal,

our God, the Ruler of the Universe Who created you in judgment, Who maintained and sustained

you in judgment, and brought death upon you in judgment; Who knows the deeds of everyone of you in judgment, and Who will hereafter restore you to life in judgment. Praised be the Eternal Who will restore life

to the dead.”

O God, full of compassion, Who dwells on high, grant true rest upon the wings of the Shechinah (Divine Presence), in the exalted spheres of the holy and pure, who shine as the resplendence of the firmament, to the soul of _____ who has gone to his/her/their eternal rest; may his/her/their place of rest be in Gan Eden. Therefore, may the All-Merciful One shelter him/her/their with the cover of Gods wings forever, and bind his/her/their soul in the bond of life. The Lord is his/her/their heritage; may he/she/they rest in his/her/their resting-place in peace; and let us say: Amen.

PSALM 121

A song of ascents

1 I lift up my eyes to the mountains—
from where does my help come?

2 My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

3 God will not let your foot slip—
he who watches over you will not slumber;

4 indeed, he who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD watches over you—
the LORD is your shade at your right hand;

6 the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD will keep you from all harm—
he will watch over your life;

8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going
both now and forevermore.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them; In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter, we remember them; In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them; In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them; In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them; When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them; When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them; When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them. So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us as we remember them.
